Little Ones Giving Thanks Poem CONTEST WINNERS!

LAUREN RYAN - AGE 9

A Thanksgiving Poem

The Pilgrims brought promise
The Indians gave corn
The feast was shared
Friendships were formed.
Today we are thankful for needs being met
For families, for fun,
For food and for pets.
Our blessings are many,
Our worries are few
We can act as pilgrims in what we choose to do
Remember our troops,
Help feed the poor,
Be a good neighbor,
And do much more.

MADISON HENNING - AGE 7

Thanksgiving comes once a year and my next door neighbor ate a deer.
It doesn't sound that good to me
I want to eat a great big turkey.
My cousin's will come to stay and I will go out to play all day
Happy Thanksgiving
